

Our vision and strategy

Grow Wakefield started off in 2010 as a small community group but has since grown into a district wide, social enterprise.

Our Mission and Purpose

A social enterprise's objects define their mission and purpose and are the motivation behind everything it does and ours are:

To promote for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Wakefield district the provision of facilities or other leisure time occupation for individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disablement, financial hardship or social and economic circumstances or for the public at large in the interest of social welfare and with the objects of improving the condition of the life of said inhabitant in particular by:

- The provision of community allotments, growing sites, workshops and other local food and wellbeing initiatives;
- The provision of opportunities for growing and volunteering;
- The advancement of education, training or retraining in particular in gardening, horticulture and related activities

Our mission statement is a simpler way to easily communicate our primary purpose which is:

To provide opportunities for improved wellbeing through growing, learning and volunteering by creating community allotments, gardens and workshops and running events across the Wakefield district

To help us deliver our social mission we have a vision of what Grow Wakefield will look like over the coming years and have developed a strategy, key aims and objectives to help us achieve that vision.

Vision

Our vision is of an expanding network of allotments, community growing sites and other local food and well-being initiatives which create opportunities for growing and volunteering and advances education in gardening, horticulture and related activities for our beneficiaries.

Strategy

Our strategy is to work with individuals, community groups, schools, businesses, housing associations and public bodies across the district to inspire and support local communities in transforming overgrown and under used pieces of land into attractive, edible community gardens and mini allotment plots.

This is achieved via a small network of paid workers obtaining commissions and funding to run sessions which bring together groups of local people looking for the opportunity to grow their own food, learn new skills and willing to volunteer their time to create new growing spaces.

Once established each group of plot holders is supported in running their own edible gardening clubs whilst contributing to the sustainability of Grow Wakefield through their plot fees.

As our network has grown so have the opportunities to help more individuals and organisations establish a variety of local initiatives such as community orchards, schools networks, Community Workshops etc which have also come under the Grow Wakefield banner.
